

LITERARY ITEMS.

"Doubly False" is the title of a fresh "sensation novel" by Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, about to be published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers.

Hurd & Houghton announce a new book of travels in preparation, from the pen of the Rev. Andrew F. Peabody, D. D., of Harvard College, entitled "Reminiscences of European Travel."

The Queen has intrusted the work of translating her Journal into the Welsh language to the hands of the Rev. J. Jones, Vicar of Llanidloes-Gogo, near Lampeter, who is said to be a first-rate Welsh scholar.

Eldredge & Brother, of Philadelphia, have in press a new work, by Professor Hart of the New Jersey State Normal School, entitled "In the School-room; or, Chapters on the Philosophy of Education."

A new novel is announced for speedy publication by Mr. Richard B. Kimball, the popular author of "St. Leger," "Romance of Student Life Abroad," and other successful works of fiction. The title, "Henry Powers, Banterer; How he achieved a Fortune and how he Married," is a clue to his character, and promises some spicy illustrations of the mystic ways of Wall-st.

The Copyright Association will immediately publish the addresses made at the Hall of the Historical Society, by Mr. Bryant, Mr. Greeley, Drs. Ossian, Prime, Selfe, Lieber, and others. The addresses include statistics illustrating the value of literary property, and will be, it is claimed, an exhaustive and conclusive answer to the arguments of Mr. Carey.
